What is safeguarding?

Schools have a statutory responsibility to keep children safe from harm. The National Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NSPCC) defines safeguarding as:

- Protecting children from abuse and maltreatment
- Preventing harm to children's health or development
- Ensuring children grow up with the provision of safe and effective care
- Taking action to enable all children and young people to have the best outcomes

What are schools expected to do?

Schools must comply with the current safeguarding guidance from the Department for Education, called Keeping Children Safe in Education. This means, for example:

- Having a designated safeguarding lead (DSL), who is trained to support staff, contribute to assessing children and liaise with other agencies

- Having a child protection policy, and procedures covering specific safeguarding issues

- Ensuring that adults working in the school are safe to work with children, by carrying out background checks (through the Disclosure and Barring Service) and having someone on interview panels who is trained in 'safer recruitment'

- Ensuring that all staff receive safeguarding and child protection training, and that this is regularly updated

What does safeguarding look like in our school?

- We protect information about your child and only share it appropriately

- We respond appropriately to an unplanned absence, or to a pattern of poor attendance

- We track concerns about children confidentially using the CPOMS safeguarding system

- We teach pupils about safeguarding issues, including how to respond to concerns, in lessons on personal, social, health and economic (PSHE) education

- We supervise pupils as they enter and leave the school building at the start and end of the day

FAQs

Who should I speak to for more information, or if I have a safeguarding concern?

You can speak to any member of staff, but we recommend that your first point of contact is your child's teacher or our DSL, Mrs Julia Norman. The alternative DSL's in school are Mrs Howarth and Mrs Taylor.

Who should my child speak to if he/she has a concern?

Your child can speak to any trusted adult in school. The adult will refer to the DSL if there is a concern about the safety of the child and record it if necessary.

How can I access more relevant information or policies?

Hard copies of relevant policies are available to view in the school office. Copies of relevant safeguarding policies are also available on our website www.ingoldisthorpeprimary.com

If you have a concern about a child outside of school, that you would like to report to Norfolk County Council Children's Advice and Duty Service (CAD'S) this can be done through Norfolk County Council's Customer Services on 0344 800 8020.
